2. All essays must be one COMPLETE PAGE MINIMUM in 12 pt. font and one inch margin (top, bottom and sides)
3. You are to reflect on all the following questions, but it should not sound like you are answering questions as you would in an assignment from the questions in your Religion book.

How has this project helped you see your role in your family in a new way or strengthened the way you have always viewed your role in your family? Have any of your family members shared anything with you about their experience of you while you did this project? Ask someone (at least one person) to share with you anything they noticed about you while you performed this service. Talk about it in this reflection. If you did something at home, has what you did become a regular activity for you? Explain. If you did something outside your home with family members, has this become a regular activity for you and your family or something you think the family may do again? Explain. How has this project helped you to see the world as an extension of your family? How has this project affected your religious faith? Has it stayed the same or strengthened it?
